

Rabbi Karen Bodney-Halasz Named Senior Rabbi

I hope you have had a chance to congratulate our soon-to-be new Senior Rabbi, Karen Bodney-Halasz. The path to offering Rabbi Bodney-Halasz this position was a slow and careful one. First, after a year of research and discussion, the Board of Directors made the difficult decision to hire an interim Rabbi. This decision was made for several reasons – among them: use of an interim Rabbi was highly recommended by other congregations and the Union for Reform Judaism; we had experience with transitions from Rabbi Bloom's retirement; and to allow Rabbi Bodney-Halasz the opportunity to spread her wings a bit and show us her leadership capabilities. So we hired Rabbi Bogosian to help us with the process of transitioning to new leadership.

More than six months ago, a rabbinic search committee was formed. This eclectic committee consisted of Michael Africk, Molly Blumer, Alan Brown, Bonnie Buchanan, Marcia Cox, Lynn Goldenberg, Ralph Heyman, Linda Ohlmann Kahn, James Levinson, Robin Moore, Fran Rickenbach, Frances Schwartz and Dan Sweeny, and was led by committee chair Jeff Stoller. Many of you attended one of several focus groups and provided input that assisted the search committee in developing criterion used to screen applications. Temple Israel received 16 applications for Senior Rabbi. Each was reviewed by the committee. Of these 16, seven received Skype interviews. Of those seven, four were invited to Dayton for a second interview. Three accepted that invitation. Those three met with the search committee, Temple staff and Temple's executive board. Once the second round of interviews was complete; the Search Committee made its decision, using a rubric to compare candidates on each of the criterion you (our congregation) helped develop. Their recommendation of the best candidate was presented to the Board of Directors, who accepted the recommendation to extend an offer to Rabbi Karen Bodney-Halasz by unanimous vote.

Rabbi Bodney-Halasz will become our Senior Rabbi with the new contract year, July 1, 2016. Her official installation will occur after the fall holidays. We do not expect Rabbi Bodney-Halasz to go it alone. Early in February, interviews for an assistant Rabbi began. We will have a new rabbinic team, but one that has a familiar face at the helm. We look forward to this new beginning.

Got Groggers? Purim Is Coming!

Join Temple Israel Dayton Youth for the annual Purim Carnival on Wednesday, March 23. We'll be paying tribute to Star Wars! Come dressed as your favorite character from the Book of Esther or bring out your best stormtrooper. Chocolate bars will be distributed to anyone in costume.

Dinner will be at 5:30 p.m., followed by the megillah reading at 6:15 and then the carnival. Celebrate with games that are out of this world and food that will make you think you're at the movies. We will feature some favorites from movie theater concession stands but don't worry, we aren't charging concession stand prices.

Dinner is $5 for 12 and over and $3 for under 12. Kids 3 and under eat free. Tickets for games are 25 cents each or 5 for $1.

Nosh, Schmooze At Kiddush Luncheon

Seeking some social time with friends on Shabbat morning? Join us for Kiddush lunch after services on Saturday, March 19. The food theme for lunch will be Jewish Indian food. No reservations are required and the lunch is FREE. Join us for study, prayer and food. Please contact Judy Heller at jrheller7777@aol.com to help. We hope to see you soon!

A Message From...
Rabbi Ilene Bogosian
Interim Senior Rabbi

About thirty years ago, George and I drove all the way across North America. We had a tent in the trunk of our car. Everywhere we went, we slept in that tent. If we were lucky we found space in one of the national parks. Those nights were full of the hush of wind gently riffling its fingers through fragrant fir trees. Other nights we tossed and turned, hot and sticky, in some farmer's pasture "camp ground," breathing the perfume of manure. Our passage across North Dakota was particularly trying. We traversed seemingly infinite fields of sunflowers, punctuated by grain elevators shimmering in the heat. You need to understand that in those days we did not have an air-conditioned car. Our Toyota had a so-called sunroof that did indeed let in the sun – and the stifling heat of the plains in August.

Then, one day we glimpsed the jagged snow-topped peaks of the Rockies poking over the horizon. We were sweltering, yearning for coolness, for snow. Once we reached the foothills, all the days in the hot car watching the sunflowers go by faded from memory. We hiked up to the tree line on Mount Edith Cavell. The air was clean and cool and we were refreshed. Up on the mountain we discovered a world we could not have imagined while growing up in New Jersey. The journey was certainly worth the sweat and the nights with the cows.

Here at Temple Israel we are at the end of a somewhat sweaty leg of our community journey. You are about to enter a new world full of promise, excitement and fresh air. Our Search Committee has come back from their desert wanderings to report that they have found the Senior Rabbi who will share our community's journey into the future. Thanks to Jeff Stoller and the rest of his search team for all of the time and energy they have invested in the future of our congregation. Without all of your dedication and all of the sometimes uncomfortable hours you spent in literal and metaphorical hot places, we could never have arrived at this moment of new beginning.

I am looking forward to the next part of my work as your interim rabbi, helping you to welcome Rabbi Karen Bodney-Halasz into her new role as your Senior Rabbi. It will be my joy to share your lives for another four months while I work with you and Rabbi Bodney-Halasz to create a smooth transition to the wonderful future that you will share.

Shabbat Shalommm Yoga

Stressed out? Looking for a different way to disconnect from your week? Join Cathy Hackett and Courtney Cummings on Friday, March 18 at 6:00 p.m. for a yoga practice that incorporates Jewish prayer and the Torah portion of the week. No previous experience is necessary and chair modifications will be given for those with limited physical abilities. Bring a mat and towel, and a friend or two! Cost is $5.

Mishenichnas Adar Marbim B'Simcha

We are taught that when the month of Adar arrives we should increase in our joy. This, of course, is in anticipation of Purim. How fortunate we are to receive a double portion this year! We are given not one, but two months of Adar in which to rejoice. I, for one, am looking joyously to the future of Temple Israel and beginning my new role as Senior Rabbi on July 1.

I am honored to be selected as your next Senior Rabbi. This is an exciting time for all of us at Temple and I hope the excitement is contagious. Over the next few years, my priorities are increasing social engagement, reinvigorating worship, engaging members of all ages, expanding our online presence, and building on our reputation of effective leadership in the community. I am counting on your support as we, together, build upon Temple's unshakable foundation and move from strength to strength.

I want to extend great appreciation to Jeff Stoller and to all of the members of our Search Committee, who were tasked with an enormous undertaking. Out of love and commitment to this congregation, they did everything necessary to set the stage for a smooth rabbinic transition.

Many of you are asking about the future status of my current position. I have already begun the search process for a new Assistant Rabbi or Rabbi/Educator and I look forward to being able to introduce you to this individual once the search is complete.

In the meantime, as we prepare for a Star Wars Purim...may the force be with all of us and may our joy be doubled.

Omega Exchange Followup

For anyone interested in listening to the sermon I delivered at Omega Baptist Church during our yearly exchange, I would be happy to forward an audio recording to you. You may also find it on the Omega Baptist Church website.

Hebrew Classes

Classes are seven or eight weeks long. The cost is $50/member and $55/non member. Call the Temple office at 496-0050 to register. A minimum of five students is required for each course to be offered.

A new Beginner Hebrew class will meet on Tuesdays from 5:30-6:30 p.m. on March 1, 8, 15, 22, April 5, 12, 19 and 26. The class will use the book Aleph Isn't Tough, which can be purchased online.

The Intermediate Hebrew class will continue where they left off in Prayerbook Hebrew the Easy Way, and will meet on Wednesdays from 5:00-6:00 p.m. on March 2, 9, 16, 23, April 6, 13, 20 and 27.

The Advanced Biblical Hebrew class will continue with Torah translations, and will meet on Mondays from 12:00-1:00 p.m. on February 22, 29, March 7, 21, 28 and April 4 and 11.

4 Come To Worship, Stay For Dinner

There's only one thing better than a hearty soup dinner on a late-winter's evening—sharing it with friends at the start of Shabbat.

On Friday, April 8, services begin at 6:00 p.m. and the soup-and-salad supper begins immediately afterwards.

Do you have a favorite soup recipe? Bring a pot to share (no pork or shellfish please!) and you'll get in FREE—and yours might be judged best in the taste-off!

The cost is $5 for adults, $3 for children ages 4-12 and free for younger children. Attendees who don't bring soup should bring a side dish to share (enough to feed 10 hungry people): last names starting with A – M please bring a salad; N – Z please bring a dessert. For information or to RSVP, call Temple at 496-0050.

Friday, April 8
after services

Earth Day Recycling Event

The Greening the Synagogue, Greening the World Committee is hosting a Pre-Passover Cleaning and Earth Day Recycling event. We'll be teaming up with Goodwill Industries, represented by our own Donald Bush, on Sunday, April 17 from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Goodwill accepts a variety of items, including clothing, kitchen and household goods, pictures, furniture, books, tapes, DVDs, electronics, and more. When in doubt bring it! Goodwill will have a large collection truck on site. Whatever electronics Goodwill cannot take, the Committee will bring to an electronic recycling organization. Bring your broken or outdated computers, printers, monitors, scanners, external drives, cables, speakers, mice, keyboards, toner cartridges, fax machines, radios, CD/DVD players, etc.

We'll also be taking used batteries!

The President's Corner

What a great time for Temple Israel! Having just chosen our new Senior Rabbi, Karen Bodney-Halasz we have learned a lot about ourselves. Our hard-working search committee, chaired by Jeff Stoller and including Michael Africk, Al Brown, Molly Blumer, Bonni Buchanan, Marcia Cox, Lynn Goldenberg, Ralph Heyman, Linda Ohlmann Kahn, Jim Levinson, Robin Moore, Fran Rickenbach, Fran Schwartz and Dan Sweeny; listened to you, our congregants, as they conducted their search. Your voices have been heard, and your input guided the committee to the best candidate for the job: none other than our own Rabbi Bodney-Halasz, who has done an outstanding job as our Rabbi Educator for the past 12 years. The committee must be commended for doing such a professional and thorough job in making their choice.

Bart Weprin

Throughout the demanding selection process, we benefited from the guidance and leadership of interm Rabbi, Ilene Bogosian. She shepherded us through the process keeping us focused and on task. We are very grateful for her help.

We should applaud Rabbi Bodney-Halasz's dedication to her duties and calm demeanor during the search process, as she awaited the committee's decision, not knowing where her family would end up.

On behalf of the congregation and the Board of Directors, I would like to congratulate our new Senior Rabbi-elect, Karen Bodney-Halasz. We look forward to thriving under her stewardship in the days ahead.

Second Seder

Save the date for the Second Night Passover Seder on Saturday, April 23 at 6:00 p.m. More details will be available in the April Tablet.

If you are interested in volunteering to help with the event, please call the Temple office. Much help will be needed.

Greening Committee To Host Environmental Film

Mark your calendars for Sunday, May 15, from 9:45-11:45 a.m. The Greening the Synagogue, Greening the World Committee will be hosting an environmental film with breakfast and discussion. The event will be free. More details will appear in the April edition of the Temple Tablet.

Tribute Donations

Temple gratefully acknowledges the following gifts received in January 2016.

Temple will list donations of $10 or more in The Tablet, and mail a notification for donations of $18 or more. Donations of $100 or more are described as "generous." A complete list of Temple funds is available online at www.tidayton.org/aboutus/foundation/. For more information, please call Temple.
