Day of Learning - ISRAEL: Then And Now

Join us on Sunday, April 15 as we take a journey to Israel without leaving town!

We will explore historical and modern Israel through themes of interfaith work, integrity, wholeness, and striving for a better future.

After the opening session at 9:00 a.m., the day will be divided into 40-minute learning blocks each dedicated to one of four themes: Interfaith Work, Integrity, Wholeness and To a Better Future. Each block will offer two adult learning sessions (including one more text-based session), at least two sessions ideal for grades 3-8, and at least one session ideal for PK-2. Student/family sessions include activity based “tours” of Jerusalem, Tel Aviv, Masada and the Dead Sea, making a Western Wall, learning about Israel’s leadership, growth of the Hebrew language and more. Please contact Rabbi Sobo for additional details.

New to the Day of Learning this year: the religious school will hold a Tzedakkah Challenge! Each religious school class will choose one charity, and you’ll get to “vote” with your contribution. We will make a larger contribution to the charity with the most donations, and a smaller contribution to the remaining charities. Contributions of all sizes are welcome – nothing is too small!

The Day of Learning is FREE of charge and open to the public. A light lunch will be served. Please RSVP to Temple.

Israeli Kiddush Luncheon

What better way to usher in spring than with a delicious lunch of fresh salads and appetizers? Please join us after morning services on Saturday, April 21 for our last Kiddush lunch of the season as we celebrate Israel’s 70th anniversary. Modern Israeli cuisine is often a fusion of many different cultures, so expect to see both familiar and exotic. Reservations are not required but if you would like to help out by bringing a dish please contact Judy Heller at 294-6224, so we’ll know what foods we have coming.
During Bart Weprin’s tenure as Temple’s president, he brought a concept to Temple Israel’s Board to investigate a merger of the Jewish cemeteries in Dayton. The purpose was to ensure the care of all the Dayton Jewish cemeteries for perpetuity and take the day-to-day care and expense of the cemetery off of the synagogues. It was a concept the Board heartily endorsed. Bart approached the leadership at the other congregations in town and the Jewish Federation of Greater Dayton to begin the process of due diligence to see if this would be feasible in our community.

A steering committee was formed under the leadership of Bob Goldenberg, with Bart as our representative. For the past two years, this committee has done a remarkable job of finding places where such mergers have worked and comparing the operations of those mergers. The steering committee met with each congregation’s board. After each congregation approved the concept and put forth questions and concerns, the steering committee moved forward to find a way to equitably merge the operations of all the Dayton Jewish cemeteries. Temple Israel, Beth Abraham and Beth Jacob form the core for this merger. Each of these congregations have similar assets to contribute. The minor differences between the congregations’ assets is being negotiated. Temple Beth Or does not have a cemetery and Chabad uses a portion of Beth Jacob’s cemetery, and while both have been supportive, they are not core members of the steering committee.

Last autumn, a more formal proposal was put before Temple’s Board of Directors. Temple’s Board passed a resolution of commitment to proceed. This resolution recommended that Temple contribute its cemetery, equipment and dedicated cemetery funds to the newly formed Dayton Jewish Cemeteries organization, provided the concerns put forth in the resolution could be met. The new organization would build an endowment to support the community-wide organization.

Temple will continue to retain ritual control over burials and an ad-hoc committee of clergy would be developed to provide input to the newly-formed organization. The steering committee is moving forward in formalizing rules to govern the new organization to include representation from each congregation involved. The organization will be applying for non-profit status and raising funds to support this joint venture. Temple’s leadership will be kept apprised of progress toward the goal of uniting the oversight of the cemeteries. If all conditions are met and all congregations agree, the newly-formed Dayton Jewish Cemeteries will take control of all Jewish cemeteries. Titles to the cemeteries and all responsibility for perpetual care and upkeep of the cemeteries will pass to Dayton Jewish Cemeteries. It is expected that completion of this process is six to twelve months away.

As a member of the leadership at Temple, I am looking forward to the success of this endeavor. Watch Temple’s Tablet for additional information as it becomes available.
Meet Lonnie Carpenter! Lonnie was born in Middletown, Ohio and grew up with two sisters, Jerilyn and Sherry. Growing up, the family enjoyed summer vacations at Clear Lake, Michigan. Lonnie graduated from Miami University and earned a Master’s degree in Community Mental Health Counseling from Wright State University. He met his wife Sarah through an on-line bulletin board and they were married in October of 2000. Lonnie has two daughters from a previous marriage: Jessica, who lives in Kettering, and Natalie from Indianapolis.

Lonnie retired from Eastway where he was a Clinical Supervisor of Treatment, but currently keeps busy as an aircraft mechanic. He would like to fly an F-22 Raptor, but would love to pilot a B-25 since that’s the plane his father flew during World War II. In addition to flying and planes, his hobbies include hockey, soccer, music and motorcycle racing. His favorite food is chili, his guilty pleasure is smoking cigars and his ultimate travel destination is Israel. If he could meet a famous person he would travel back in time and meet David Ben-Gurion. If Lonnie could have a superpower he would like to be able to change hate into love.

Lonnie was elected to the Temple Israel board in 2012 and re-elected in 2015.

Holocaust survivor. Grandma. Diva. BIG SONIA!

In the last store in a defunct shopping mall, 91-year-old Sonia Warshawski—great-grandmother, businesswoman, and Holocaust survivor—runs the tailor shop she’s owned for more than 30 years. But when she’s served an eviction notice, the specter of retirement prompts Sonia to resist her harrowing past as a refugee and witness to genocide. A poignant story of generational trauma and healing, BIG SONIA also offers a laugh-out-loud funny portrait of the power of love to triumph over bigotry, and the power of truth-telling to heal us all.

BIG SONIA
First of all, many thanks to those who participated in a thrilling day at Wise Temple on March 11! We learned about Reform Ohio, a new project from the Religious Action Center dedicated to advancing Jewish Values in the public space, and honed skills to help us work toward the changes we wish to see in our community! And thanks to those who came out for our PJs, Prayer, and Play event — it was a blast!

Second, I hope you will all come and join us as we pray, study and eat together on Sunday, April 15 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. for our Israel Day of Learning!

The Bible tells us that: “On that day, Adonai made a covenant with Abram and said, ‘To your descendants I give this land…’” (Gen 15:18). We have a connection to Israel that goes back to Biblical times, and this year marks 70 years since the founding of the State of Israel. “Israel” is a big topic, and certainly not one that can be fully addressed in a single day. Over the coming year we’ll engage our relationship with Israel in many ways, from many speakers, and consider the various faces of Israel.

I often think of Israel as a conglomeration of three main aspects: Eretz Yisrael, Am Yisrael and Medinat Yisrael.

Eretz Yisrael is the land: the mountains, hills and valleys that form the rich and bountiful land of the Middle East. How exhilarating it is to travel the country and know we’re walking over the same land that our ancestors once walked!

Am Yisrael is the People of Israel, the group which identifies as Jews, referring to the generations that have faced trials and tribulations and persevered. When I hand the Torah to b’nei mitzvah students and say they are the next link in the chain, this is the chain of Israel that goes back to Biblical times.

Medinat Yisrael is the State of Israel: the political entity that currently exists in the Middle East, the modern homeland for Jews.

As we explore Israel, in all its facets, over the coming year and beyond, we are sure to find aspects that resonate and others that are more challenging to personal, religious or political beliefs. The very word “Israel” contains the root to struggle or wrestle. To me, this is what we are supposed to do! Rather than expecting our relationship with Israel to come easy, we must continue to delve into that relationship where it is easy and where it is difficult.

This year’s Day of Learning will focus on Israel, touching on all of these aspects. Those sessions geared to religious school students, will be more focused on the Land of Israel and all that it has to offer. One strand of learning during the day will take participants on a journey through Israel with stops in Jerusalem, Tel Aviv and other prominent locations. Students will have the opportunity to make Israeli-themed art projects, engage in folk dancing and more. We’ll have sessions for adult learners on a variety of topics related to Biblical and modern Israel, spanning across all three aspects of Israel. There’s something for everyone!

Relax!  Get your dancing shoes on as you enjoy a wide range of entertainment, both inside and outside! Local klezmer group – The Matzah Balls – plays for the first time on our outdoor stage and we have the return of some favorites, including the Dayton Jewish Chorale, the Miami Valley Music Men, Tim Pritchard & the Boxcar Suite, Jacob McGlaun & Angele Price, and the Shimmy Cats dancers. The Second Stage acoustic indoor venue will also feature performers for your listening and viewing pleasure.

Learn!  Local and regional experts share a variety of knowledge on topics including the role of the Holocaust in the formation of the state of Israel, progressive Judaism in Israel, Israel in the media, and the relationship between Israel and the United States.

Eat!  El Meson, Pasha Grill, Smokin’ Bar-B-Que, and Bernstein’s Catering will feature their takes on Jewish classics, ranging from falafel to traditional deli fare to Tex-Mex brisket. Graeter’s will also be in attendance, serving up delicious kosher ice cream. Our ever-popular bakery will sell homemade challah, honey cake, hamentashen, and rugalach. You can even snag a piece of birthday cake in honor of Israel’s 70th.

Big Birthday Oneg

Join the festivities as we celebrate Mort Levines's 90th birthday with a celebratory oneg after services on Friday, April 20 sponsored by Mort and Phyllis Levine.

Birthdays and Anniversaries

The Tablet publishes birthdays every five years starting at age 35 and annually starting at age 85; we publish anniversaries every five years and annually after 60 years. If you prefer not to be listed, please call Ellen at 496-0050. If you were not included in our list, please call Ellen, and we will publish your name in the next Temple Tablet.

Volunteers Needed for JCF

No number of volunteers is too many and no amount of time is too small. We need volunteers to help plan, bake, schlep, and set up in addition to LOTS of volunteers on Festival day, June 10, to greet, offer directions, sell raffle tickets, supervise children’s activities, sell food and drinks, and so much more! To find out how you can get involved, email jcf@tidayton.org. Save the date, tell your friends, plan to attend and - even better - volunteer your time to make this day a success! We appreciate it!

Create Your Jewish Legacy

What will your legacy be?

Maintaining the vibrancy and strength of our Jewish community is a concern for all of us. We want to ensure that our Jewish heritage and values continue to exist for future generations. If we take a minute and think of how fulfilling the richness of Judaism is in our lives, most of us would agree that we want our children and grandchildren to share in this treasure. To do so we must ensure that our Temple is financially stable to carry out this task.

Endowments are an essential element of every Jewish organization’s financial stability. We need to continue to grow our endowment to provide the level of funding so that our Temple can pass on the Jewish values we so cherish.

Now is the time to make your plans to be part of this mission. Legacy giving is based on voluntary action for the common good of the Jewish people. We encourage you all to embrace this as your means to empower our future. Help secure a Jewish tomorrow, become part of the legacy. Please call Suzanne Shaw at Temple or any member of the Life and Legacy team (Alan Brown, Nancy Cohen, Rich Cohen, Katherine Cooper, Jeff Stoller, Dan Young, Bart Weprin) for more information.

Pray as if everything depended on God; act as if everything depended on you.
Tribute Donations

Temple gratefully acknowledges the following gifts received during February 2018. Temple will list donations of $10 or more in The Tablet, and mail a notification for donations of $18 or more. Donations of $100 or more are described as “generous.” A complete list of Temple funds is available online at www.tidayton.org/aboutus/foundation/. For more information, please call Temple.
