GATHERING TOGETHER

By Courtney Cummings

We had a great time last month celebrating Purim (see photo above), but now spring is officially here! With this season comes the celebration of our freedom with Passover, where we can join together in person for our Second Seder on Thursday, April 6 at 6:00PM. See page 3 for more details on how you can help make the event a success.

We also have other moments of gathering this month for people of all ages and interests. There is a curated and guided wildflower walk on April 16 with Tara Poling (see page 3), three wonderful and diverse speakers who round out our 2022-23 Ryterband Speaker Series (see page 6), a special moment for our Czech Torah scroll at the end of the month (see page 9), and chance to donate items for a clothing drive, led by our teens (see page 9).

As the weather warms up, we hope that you will join with us to celebrate, enjoy each other's company, and take in all that is around us.

A NEW PATH AHEAD

By: Rabbi Karen Bodney-Halasz

On June 30, Courtney Cummings will exit her role as director of communications to pursue a new creative outlet in the fields of interior design and home organizing. I am happy to share that Courtney will continue to elevate our worship with her beautiful voice. She will remain our music director, even as she enhances her career through new endeavors.

For nearly 10 years, Courtney has been a vital part of the senior staff and bimah team. Her ingenuity and strong leadership have brought innovative programming to Temple, including Shalommm Yoga, the Dayton Jewish Chorale, Sunday Bike and Brunch, the Oy Vey 5K, and a community artist-in-residence program with Noah Aronson. Most notably, under Courtney's direction the Jewish Cultural Festival has grown in impact and numbers, setting records for attendance and fundraising.

"Courtney is a great organizer for the JCF," said Past President Dan Young, who worked closely with Courtney on the festival committee. "We will miss her talents in so many areas but wish her the best in her new endeavor. She is an amazing music director and I look forward to hearing her voice in our services for years to come."

Current Board President Linda Novak added that "her devotion to making the Cultural Festival work, especially with the drive-thru events during COVID, has benefitted the entire community so much. Thank you, Courtney, for a job well done!"

Linda also stressed "how grateful we are as a congregation for all of Courtney's work, especially how she's kept the Temple Tablet interesting to read and lovely to look at."

I've often touted Courtney's eye for design and gilded tongue. As communications director, she elevated our profile with eye-catching posters and advertisements and refreshed our Temple logo, Temple Tablet, website, and weekly TIDBITS. She eloquently crafted our current mission statement as well.

Over the years, Courtney has proven to be a valuable on-air liaison to the public and has worked hard on behalf of Temple to establish strong partnerships in the Dayton community. She is passionate about helping others and seeing her hometown thrive, which has led to her personal and professional involvement in local noteworthy initiatives.

I am grateful, as we all are, for Courtney's years of service as senior staff. She is an outstanding co-worker and teammate. Her many talents have had a strong influence on Temple's success over the years and it will be a huge challenge to fill her shoes. I am excited to watch Courtney utilize her skills, knowledge, and expertise in wonderful and exciting new ways that will open even more opportunities for her in the future.

SECOND SEDER AT TEMPLE

By: Rabbi Karen Bodney-Halasz

You are invited to join us for a congregational second seder on Thursday, April 6 at 6:00PM at Temple Israel. Bernstein's Fine Catering will provide a menu of matzo ball soup, gefilte fish, baked chicken or vegetable ratatouille, Israeli salad, potatoes, glazed carrots, and dessert. Cost is $36/person and $20/child, ages 3-11. RSVPs are required no later than Monday, March 27. Everyone is welcome to attend, but priority will be given to Temple members. Call the office at 937.496.0050 or visit <https://tidayton.wispform.com/8e2e7424> to register online and reserve your spot at the table.

Interested in helping? We need lots of volunteers who are available to help beforehand and during the event. We need people who are willing and able to set tables, prepare each table with the appropriate seder plate items, and bus tables during and after the meal. If you think you can help with any or all of these areas, please give us a call to sign up - 937.496.0050. We appreciate your willingness to assist and make this special event a success for everyone in attendance.

RSVP by March 27 to confirm your spot!

WILDFLOWER WALK WITH A FRIEND

Join us Sunday, April 16 at 2:00PM for a Wildflower Walk at Mount St. John, led by Tara Poling. The two-hour session is an opportunity to see one example of how a faith community has transformed their land to extend the virtue of hospitality to all of creation.

The Adult Education Committee, in conjunction with the Marianist Environmental Education Center, is pleased to be offering this continuation of our discussion on Tu B'Shevat of the importance of protecting God's sacred environment around us. We will look for spring ephemeral wildflowers, which are a charismatic group of long-lived species that complete their entire above-ground portion of their lifecycle in the spring. They include Dutchman's Breeches, twinleaf, bloodroot, trout lilies and our state wildflower - the great white trillium. We will be discussing invasive species that threaten their habitat. Meet at 4435 E. Patterson Road, Dayton OH 45430 and park in Lot C. For directions, visit: <https://meec.center/visit>. $5 suggested donation.

PRE-ORDERS NOW OPEN

By: Courtney Cummings

The online pre-order form for the Jewish Cultural Festival is now open! Visit tidayon.org/festival for more information on the event and for the link to purchase baked goods, buy raffle tickets, and support our fundraiser.

This one-stop shop allows you to ensure that the baked goods you want will be waiting for you to pick up at the event on Sunday, June 11. You may also purchase raffle tickets to have a chance of winning one of many prize bundles. All of the raffle proceeds directly support Temple's programs and services. Another way to support this fundraiser is by making a donation! Individuals and businesses are encouraged to contribute to our only major fundraiser of the year. Every dollar counts!

Questions? Contact me - 937.496.0050 or courtney@tidayon.org.

VOLUNTEERING FOR A CAUSE

By: Carol Finley & Cathy Lieberman

There are lots of ways that you can help support our Jewish Cultural Festival. If you are looking to donate your time, we would love to find the right place for you to help!

Love to bake? Join Sara Faust and Amy Margolin on April 30, May 14 or 21. On these dates, our baking crew will make Passover almond cookies, honey cake, and challah. Baking locations vary by week, so contact Sara for more details - sara@fausthouse.org.

Want to help on June 11? We have opportunities for people of all ages and abilities. Some of the areas we need help include selling raffle tickets, food and drink tickets, and soda, assisting in the children's area, welcoming attendees at the inside information desk, leading tours of the building, and working with our logistics team to set-up and tear-down the event. Email Teresa, our Volunteer Chair at teresa.wyman@gmail.com to get on the list to help. Thank you!

Rabbi Karen Bodney-Halasz
Senior Rabbi
at Temple Israel

A View from Israel

Together with participants on the 2023 congregational trip to Israel, Rabbi Bodney-Halasz will share thoughts on our treasured homeland, including the struggles, triumphs, and everyday life. She will also engage us in conversation about issues in this modern Jewish community.

BEREAVEMENT ROOM NOW COMPLETED

Thanks to a generous donor, we have been able to transform our lifecycle room into a calm and serene space for those who are dealing with the loss of a loved one. This room will be the home of our group meetings and will serve as a peaceful haven for those who are grieving. New support groups are forming and participants in these groups may be coping with a recent loss or one from past. If you are interested in joining, please reach out to Rabbi Bodney-Halasza (rabbi@tidayton.org) to let her know. We are here to support all of you during these difficult periods.

The room is complete with a small coffee area, multiple seating arrangements with cozy blankets, tranquil artwork on the walls, and books on loss, mourning, hope, and the grieving process.

TRIBUTE DONATIONS

Temple gratefully acknowledges the following gifts received in February. We list donations in the Tablet of $10 or more and mail a notification for donations of $18 or more. Donations of $100 or more are described as generous. A complete list and descriptions of funds is available at tidayton.org.

J-SERVE PROGRAM & YOUTH EVENTS

On Sunday, April 16, teens from across the world will gather in solidarity for a day of service called J-Serve 2023. Here in Dayton, our teens are collecting gently used clothing for Closet Transformation. Items needed for the clothing drive are listed on the right. You may bring your items to Temple or to the Center for Jewish Culture & Education (525 Versailles Drive, 45459) by April 14. On April 16, all of the donations will be sorted by the teens and donated to the organization.

For our younger folks, Rabbi Sobo and Lake Miller have an exciting Prayer & Play planned for Saturday, April 15 from 10:00AM - 1:00PM at Temple. We'll celebrate the end of Passover with fun activities, some creative play, and prayer. At noon, kids in grades 3-5 are welcome to join us for a pizza party and more activities. We'll finish the pizza party by 2:00PM. Want to join us? Email Rabbi Sobo - educator@tidayton.org to let her know that you are planning to attend.

Most Prayer & Play programs are geared to children and their families from ages 0 - 8 and happen on a monthly basis. You may email Rabbi Sobo if you would like to be added to mailing list that received notifications about these events.

Activities for all ages this month!

GATHERING OF CZECH TORAHS

In 1942, over 1800 scrolls from 350 communities of Bohemia and Moravia were sent to Prague where they were warehoused and kept safe from destruction by the Nazis. In 1963, they were brought to London to be restored, forming the Czech Scroll Memorial Trust. Then the trust distributed the scrolls to communities all over the world to be used by Jewish congregations.

In honor of the 80th anniversary of their collection, The Temple-Tifereth Israel in Cleveland has invited the caretakers of Czech scrolls from all over the world to join with them on Sunday, April 23, for a special Torah service at which the week's parasha will be read from these scrolls. Each scroll will be called to the bimah by its community name, and one line of the Torah will be read in memory of the Jews from Czechoslovakia who perished, and in honor of those who survived. Calling the community to the bimah is a way of ensuring that those people from that community are not forgotten. Rabbi Bodney-Halasza will joyfully participate in this beautiful remembrance, with Temple's Czech Torah scroll.

WE REMEMBER

These names are inscribed on the Memorial Tablets in our Sanctuary and, together with others whose Yahrzeit occurs during these weeks, will be read during Shabbat services before Kaddish.

PRESERVING OUR PAST; ENSURING THE FUTURE

By: Bob Goldenberg, Jeffrey Stoller, & Dan Young

Walking through Dayton's three Jewish cemeteries is like taking a history tour of our community. They have a unique atmosphere, filled with evidence of families and friends we once knew and loved, of stories told and shared, and of names that have been passed down through generations.

To preserve our history, a dedicated committee of Beth Abraham, Beth Jacob, and Temple Israel members studied the best way to maintain our cemeteries in perpetuity. Their study and research culminated in the creation of the Jewish Cemeteries of Greater Dayton (JCGD), an independent endowment organization designed to sustain the sanctity, care, and integrity of these sacred burial grounds, while respecting each congregation's control of their ritual decisions. This fund will allow the beautiful and aesthetic surroundings of our cemeteries to continue to function as the inspiration for personal remembrance. The study concluded that JCGD required $4.8 million to fully fund an endowment. Since then, each congregation voted to commit $450,000 to the campaign once the community raised the additional $3.5 million. To date, with gratitude to many generous donors, JCGD has raised $1.8 million.

To donate or learn more about the campaign, please contact Jeffrey Stoller at info@daytonjewishcemeteries.org. We owe this effort to those whose eternal homes are in our cemeteries.
