SYMPHONY RETURNS

By Courtney Cummings

This year's Jewish Cultural Festival is filled with exciting new and returning partners! We are so pleased to announce that the Miami Valley Symphony Orchestra (MVSO) will close the Festival entertainment tent with orchestral settings of Jewish folk music and the sweeping sounds of movie soundtracks by John Williams. The MVSO is a community based, non-profit organization, whose mission is to bring together accomplished and dedicated musicians to provide high quality performances to entertain, enrich and inspire the community and advance the knowledge and appreciation of music. We look forward to welcoming them to our celebration and can't wait to have them grace our stage.

Learn more about the group at mvso.org and come hear them at 5:00PM at the Jewish Cultural Festival on Sunday, June 11.

See the entire schedule of performers on page 4.

LET THE FESTIVITIES BEGIN

By: Courtney Cummings

The month of June is here and that means it is almost time for our Jewish Cultural Festival. For nearly the last decade, I have had the honor and privilege of managing this event and the amazing volunteers that make it happen. Together, we have watched it grow in size, influence, and appeal, becoming one of the signature events of our Jewish community. It brings me so much joy to have been a part of that growth, creating a safe and fun space for the Dayton community to explore our Jewish history, customs, and faith. As I hope you all know, this will be my last time leading the Jewish Cultural Festival, but the congregation is in good hands with Jodi Phares, our new Marketing & Communications Manager. Jodi and I have had time over the last month to work together to ensure an easy transition, and to allow her to see how we prepare for this event.

For a little bit of fun, we have compiled the Top 5 Things to Do at the Jewish Cultural Festival:

1. Indulge in the delicious food offerings. With new and returning food vendors, plus over 6,000 baked goods to sample and take home, no one will go hungry at this event. Brock Masterson's Catering serves up a delicious smoked brisket, El Meson delights with arepas and empanadas, and My Favorite Muffin supplies some of the best bagels and schmear. And don't forget to visit Graeter's for the creamiest ice cream!

2. Expand your thoughts on diversity in Jewish life. Inside the sanctuary, local and regional experts will touch on topics that explore what it means to be a Jew. Did you know there are Jewish farmer's groups? What about the different practices of Sephardic and Ashkenazi Jews? We'll also offer tours of our building throughout the afternoon.

3. Delight in the sights and sounds of our performers. The outdoor stage will be filled with music and dance from some of our favorite entertainers, spanning genres from klezmer to folk tunes, to show tunes, and more. The Miami Valley Symphony Orchestra closes the festival at 5:00PM with a wonderfully curated set of movie music from John Williams and orchestral settings of Jewish classics.

4. Take a chance to win big in the raffle. Merchants, businesses, restaurants, and other local companies have generously contributed to our raffle so that you have the opportunity to win one of five prize packages worth a total of over $3,000. Tickets will be on sale at the front gate.

5. Take a piece of the Festival home. Even though the event only lasts a day, remember your experience for years to come. Over 20 vendors will be on-site selling a variety of items from jewelry to Judaica to wood carvings to games. Support these small businesses and have fun shopping.

Whatever you choose to do, we hope you will come and enjoy the day with your friends, family, and your congregation. Also, please be sure to give Jodi a warm welcome to the Temple Israel family.

Thank you again for the opportunity to serve. You have provided an immeasurable amount of knowledge and support over the last ten years, and for that, I am forever grateful. I look forward to forging this new path ahead in interior design and home organizing, but also delight in knowing that I will still be leading you in song from the bimah.

GET READY FOR SOME DELICIOUS FOOD!

"If you feed them, they will come!" - a familiar saying, especially in the Jewish world. We are gearing up for the best as we prepare for the Jewish Cultural Festival on Sunday, June 11. The Temple bakers have been hard at work preparing delicious treats with help from Ghostlight Bakery, and we will also welcome new food vendors to the event this year! Our food partners include El Meson, Brock Masterson's Catering, My Favorite Muffin, and Graeter's. We have options for everyone - brisket, salmon, vegetarian delights, bagels, gluten free options, and kid-friendly eats. Come early, come hungry, and eat often!

CELEBRATE PRIDE SHABBAT WITH US

Friday, June 2 at 6:00PM

Live in color! Judaism teaches us to love everyone as our neighbor. We are going to share the love at this special Shabbat service and celebrate everyone in the rainbow at our Pride Share Shabbat on Friday, June 2 at 6:00PM.

We'll gather together in the sanctuary first for our Shabbat service. Then, we'll head down to Gimel for our potluck dinner, complete with rainbow challah (and chicken and Kiddush wine).

Potluck dinner assignments are based on your last name: A-G: dessert, H-L: salad, M-R: vegetable, S-Z: starch. RSVP online by May 31 in order to save your place at the table. Scan the QR code below to make your reservation.

*Do you have something to celebrate? Sponsor an upcoming Schmooze & Nosh!
These Friday night onegs are a great time for members to join together for a bite to eat before the service.*

CARING COMMITTEE SHABBAT

For over three years, dedicated members of our community have called upon fellow congregants to check in on their well-being. This Caring Committee was the lifeline of the congregation during the peak of the pandemic. Many people have never met their dedicated caller in person and we are about to change that! Join us on Saturday, July 8 at 10:30AM for a Shabbat service where we will honor our Caring Committee callers and invite everyone in the congregation to come and meet these dedicated volunteers. A Kiddush luncheon will immediately follow the service to give everyone an opportunity to speak in person with the voice on the other end of the telephone line and offer their words of appreciation face-to-face.

RSVP to the Temple office by Wednesday, July 5 to reserve your spot at the lunch. Should you need assistance with transportation, please let us know at that time and we will do our best to help.

On Thursday, July 27 at 7:00PM at the home of Marcia Cox, we will explore the Jewish holiday of Tisha B'Av (the ninth of Av). On this day, we mourn the loss of the Second Temple, open up the conversation about how we can repair the world, and what we can do to instill ahavat chinam (baseless love) in our world today.

The program will include multiple activities meant to deepen our understanding of the holiday. We will engage in a study session, complete a hands-on activity, and discuss together as a group what the holiday can mean for us in the modern world.

RSVP to Tom Bainbridge by July 20 - thomasbainbridge5751@gmail.com or 937-620-4466 to let us know you are planning to attend.
